

Office of the Mayor
Estes Park, Colorado

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Town of Estes Park, Colorado recognizes the economic impact of travel and tourism and the benefits of our many lodging properties, including bed and breakfasts throughout our area; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the substantial contributions made by bed and breakfasts to our Town and to Colorado by creating an enjoyable experience for guests while instilling an appreciation of our state's many assets including our history, shops, restaurants, museums, art, culture, parks, recreational activities and leisure attractions, among others; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of Estes Park's tourism-related industry, businesses, amenities and associations, which contribute so much to the development of this burgeoning B&B industry; and

WHEREAS, bed and breakfasts provide significant local and state revenues from which our entire citizenry benefits; and

WHEREAS, given these laudable contributions to the economic, social and cultural well-being of the residents of Estes Park, Colorado, it is fitting that we recognize the efforts of Bed & Breakfast Innkeepers of Colorado (BBIC), the statewide association dedicated to hospitality and quality lodging and welcome the organization to our Town from November 9-10, 2008 for the 22nd annual BBIC Aspiring Innkeepers Day, B&B Tour and Open House, Welcome Dinner, Conference, Trade Show and Membership Meeting;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Board of Trustees of the Town of Estes Park proclaim the month of November 2008 as in Estes Park, Colorado with thanks and recognition for BBIC's efforts in providing educational opportunities for bed and breakfast innkeepers to increase business viability and continue the beneficial economic impact to our region and the state of Colorado.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed.

William C. Pinkham, Mayor
